When the Dewan visited Anekal

for the grant of a tasdik to the Jumma Masjid there. The petn

of the Secretary, who observed as follows:-

"New tasdiks are seldom granted and this is not likely to be an exception. The papers may be filed". (Hd) G. A. 8/12-9-18.

The D. C now reports that the Khaji of the place enjoys inam lands; that the Masjid has an income of Rs 12 ~~the~~ from rents & that as it is not a largely visited institution, no cash grant is now called for.

It will be seen from the ver. papers that the expenditure in the Masjid is Rs 24-4-0; that the expenditure in excess of the income of Rs 12/- is being met by means of subscriptions from the Mussalmans of the place, who are mostly very poor people; that subscriptions cannot be depended upon; & that the institution needs some help from Govt. It is also seen that there are no savings in the Taluk out of which some grant may be made to the institution.

Sir,

With reference to Government order No.2164-4/Mis.465-15-4 of the 1st March 1917 accepting the deposit of Rs.1,000/- offered by Mr.G. Venkataramanya, Pleader, for the benefit of the Sri Kodandarama Swami Temple at Bidaragere in the Anekal Taluk, stating that the question of bringing under Government management the temple in question, should form the subject of a separate correspondence, I have the honor to state that subsequent to the above order, Mr.G.Venkataramanyyahas endowed a further sum of Rs.1,000/- for the same purpose and the full amount of Rs.2,000/- has been invested in 6½ % State Loan(Vide, Government order No.3113-6/Muz. 243-20-8 dated 3rd March 1921). The interest on this is Rs.130/-. Besides the above endowment in cash, Mr.G.Venkataramanyya has also endowed some lands, the annual income from which is estimated at Rs.150/-. Hence,the total income of the temple is Rs.280/- per annum.

In the above circumstances, I consider that the temple may be brought under Government management.

On receipt of Government orders sanctioning the proposal, a scale of receipts and expenditure and the names of Dharmadarsis will be reported.
